

SEND Reform Implementation - Schools

Free resources

Achievement for All has produced a range of free interactive guides to help schools, teachers, parents and carers to understand the SEND Reform changes and their implications. Click on the images below:

SEND Reforms - Exploring the Changes

A quick guide to SEND Reforms, how they impact on school practice, with reflective questions to guide your strategic developments.

Anatomy of an EHCP What are the main components of an Education Health Care Plan and how do they come together?

Timescales and Flowcharts A quick guide to the key steps and the timing expectations for the EHCP process, Mediation and Appeals.

Personal Profiles The critical importance attached to supporting the voice of children and young people in the EHCP process.

From Provision to Outcomes This is a cultural change that has profound impact on how a school works with children and young people, and their parents.

Multi-agency Working Stressing the importance of "team around the child"

Case Studies

Further Support

Achievement for All offer a full SEND Reform Implementation Review to support and challenge your school to assess exactly where you're at with the reforms and identify areas that need particular focus.

The Reviews are led by one of our highly experienced Review Coaches and underpinned by rigorous Quality Assurance and national perspective. Incorporating coach visits, a full audit and presentation of a report outlining areas of strengths and recommended next steps, the whole process can be complete in 4-6 weeks leaving you with excellent evidence to present to Ofsted and others of your commitment in this area.

The Achievement for All Schools Programme is our flagship programme for primary and secondary schools, academies and free schools; PRUs; and for special schools. Designed by school leaders and other education professionals, more than 2000 schools and academies have worked with Achievement for All.

Every year, for the past five years, it has been shown to close the achievement gap between children deemed vulnerable to underachievement - including those on free school meals, looked-after children, and those identified with SEND - and their peers.
