Who wants to be a Millionaire-style Anti-Bullying Game

<http://www.afa3as.org.uk/images/Intranet/antibully/Who%20Wants%20To%20Be%20An%20AntiBullyinq%20Millionaire.pptx>

This fun and engaging resource has been produced by John Khan, one of our coaches.

“Please find attached an interactive resource for anti-bullying week in the style of Who Wants to be a Millionaire, which I use when delivering assemblies. The resources can be used with year groups 4-8. Depending on how confident people are with the subject matter this can take anywhere between 20-35 minutes to complete. I also use this resource as an ice-breaker activity.

I've themed the questions a little.

Q1. focuses on this year's Anti-Bullying Week theme

Q2-5 looks at type, prevalence, reason and harm of bullying.

Q6-7 where bullying takes place and impact

Q8-10 related to bystander behaviour

Q11-14 are more general questions about impact of bullying e.g. attendance

Q15 The last figure relates to East Sussex's Safer School Survey based on 10,500 respondents. It's important to end on a positive recognising that the vast majority of young people do in fact feel safe in school.
