

Home Learning- Suggested schedule

Year	Key Stage 3	Subject	Geography
Term		Topic	Children around the World
Assessment	Knowledge, review and decision making exercises

Activity	Task detail	Outcome	Date Due
1	Development differences Annotate the two photos to show the differences between the children. Think about the people, the environment and what the photos show you about wealth. Ask your teacher for the photo sheet	Annotated A4 photo sheet
2	Models of being a child Using the information sheets, write two paragraphs to explain what you think Brian and Sophie's theories of being a child are. This is your opinion and you can change it in home learning activity 6	Two paragraphs about childhood theories
3	Children at work Draw a cartoon or create a video to show what you think it would be like if you had to work now. Would you be happy or sad? Why are you working? If you would like a cartoon template ask your teacher	A cartoon strip or video
4	Children at war Using https://www.dosomething.org/facts/11-facts-about-child-soldiers Pick two facts that you think are the most shocking about child soldiers, Find the definition for any words you don't understand. 2. Why do these facts shock you? 3. What do you think should be done about child soldiers? Ask your teacher for a template	Completed A4 discussion sheet
5	Assessment preparation Using your class notes, create 4 revision cards about childhood – Card 1 – Sophie and Brian's theory of being a child Card 2 – Children and family (MEDC & LEDC) Card 3 – Children at work (MEDC & LEDC) Card 4 – Children at war (MEDC & LEDC)	4 completed A5 revision cards
6	Assessment review Using home learning activity 1, how would you now describe & explain the two different theories of being a child? Use your class notes to help you.	Two paragraphs or brain storms to show the two theories of being a child

Extension work

- Using your own research, find other examples of how children's lives around the world are different to your own. Keep a reference list of the websites you use.
 - Write a report to:
 - Locate your example
 - Explain how it is different to your life
 - Explain why it is different
- Challenge question: Do you think it is fair that children are around the world have different opportunities? Eg. Life, school, work, family.

Resources to help complete the tasks

- Colouring pens or pencils
- ICT